The Administrator made one minor comment, fixing a typo. Mark has the hardcopy of the document now, which we will scan and circulate for your records later this morning.

Thank you,
Kamila

I haven't heard anything re: Administrator comments yet. I'll let you know the moment I learn anything.

I have not heard anything other than 'this morning'. Perhaps he will give the comments to Matt following the 8:30.

I requested access and am awaiting approval.

Charlotte, do you know if the Administrator was given a time frame today to provide his input?

Dana/Mark – Can you take a look to make sure that you have access and if you have any questions for Angela on how to make edits.
Thanks!
Charlotte

We are going to run this through our system steps, but I wanted you both to have the link to the Word document that needs to be used to make edits: Click here

Share with whoever needs it and then let us know (including those copied on this) when it is ready to go to Alex for signature, or if you have any questions.

BTW – In addition to the change we discussed yesterday, I made a lot of corrections. Sandra is going to do one final run through this morning. I will prepare a redline and post it as soon as I can, but wanted to get this link out. If every change is made to this version I will also do a final run through once we know the editing is done to see if we need to make conforming changes to any new text.
